Restricted Narrative

Incident type: DOA

Date/Time: 3/3/19 @0952hrs

Location: 6722 Halliday Ln. Madisonville, Tx 77864

Victim: Caldwell, Billy wm dob 7/20/41

On 3/3/19 at 0939hrs I, Dep. Klinge was dispatched to 6722 Halliday Ln. on a report of an unattended death.

I arrived on scene at 0950hrs. The home was a brown brick veneer with the front door facing south. Judge J. Stevens was present on scene and met with me in front of the residence. Judge Stevens said that he had pronounced Caldwell, Billy wm dob 7/20/41 deceased at 0952hrs.

I met with the reporting party, Tim Manning (other family members were present on scene). Tim said that he called Billy Caldwell's residence this morning just before 0900hrs. Caldwell's daughter, Lisa Wiese requested that he check on her father for her. After receiving no answer to his phone call, Tim stated that he came to the residence at approximately 0915hrs. Tim said that Caldwell was unresponsive and he could not detect a pulse. He called 911 immediately.

First Responder Jerod Gerfers was on scene and EMS had been dispatched. No lifesaving efforts were performed. Gerfers informed me that he saw that livor mortis was present and he noted rigor mortis beginning in Caldwell's hands. A justice of the peace (Stevens) was notified.

I proceeded to the decedent's location which was the south west bedroom. Caldwell was lying on a bed in a supine position with his head facing south. Both arms were extended along his sides, his right leg was extended, and the left leg was slightly flexed at the knee. Caldwell was clothed in a white t-shirt and red plaid boxer shorts. I observed that livor mortis was present and fixed, and in agreement with the effects of gravity. Rigor mortis was present in the jaw, elbows, and wrists, but was not fully set in the hands. There was no indication of any type of struggle or foul play.

Tim informed me that Caldwell had been in the hospital Friday morning for pain in his groin, but had been released that evening (3/1/19). Yesterday (3/2/19) at noon, he and Lisa Wiese were at Caldwell's residence. He said Caldwell appeared to be having some difficulty breathing. He and Wiese propped him up in the bed. They stayed for a while and then left the residence. Prior to leaving Lisa asked Tim to check on Caldwell in the morning (today).

I assisted Day's Funeral Home with moving Caldwell for transport to the funeral home.
